IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Purpose of Form

The Social Security Administration (SSA) is required to file an information return (i.e., Form 1099-MISC) with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) when payments of $600 or more have been made to appointed representatives associated with a business entity as employees or partners. In order to meet this requirement, SSA must obtain the name, employer identification number (EIN), and address of the business entity.

Instructions for Completing the Form

Employer Identification Number

Please enter your EIN. If you do not have an EIN, please apply for one immediately by filing an SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, with the IRS. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

Name of Business Entity

Enter your business name as shown on required Federal tax documents. Normally, this will match the name used when you filed a Form SS-4 to apply for an EIN.

Tax Mailing Address

Please enter your tax mailing address. SSA will mail Form 1099-MISC to you at this address if payments of $600 or more are made to appointed representatives associated with your business entity during a tax year.

We will use the information to identify appointed representatives associated with a business entity as employees or partners, and to facilitate issuance of appropriate return information for reporting purposes. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0325, entitled Appointed Representative File, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on October 8, 2009, at 74 FR 51940.
